The Fall Show for the Michigan State Numismatic Society was held at Dearborn in November just After Thanksgiving as usual. It was a great show and a great gathering of friends that enjoy getting together for this event. The coin market has taken a 30 - 40% drop since last May but this has not altered the collector coin market or the paper money collectors. Only investor coins and generic coins that are slabbed and graded MS-65 or higher have taken the big drop. In fact, due to the problems in the coin market such as high prices and grading it is forcing some of these collectors out of coins and now into collecting paper money. In paper money we don't have the promoters causing higher prices and the grading problems is nearly non-existent, especially in Obsoletes and National currency.

We had some nice exhibits again this year and Joe Mikolajczyk won the "Best of Show" award from PMCM for his exhibit on Silver Certificates. He won a nice clock type plaque. We would like to stimulate some more interest in exhibiting, to see more of your paper money treasures. Instead of a Best of Show Award to one person, a cash prize and some books will be awarded to each exhibitor that puts together at least a 3 case exhibit. So if you want to make a little easy cash let us see what you collect. We will vote on each of these exhibits at the meeting in Grand Rapids, where we will have our next show, to see who makes the most money. GOOD LUCK to the winner.

Our speaker for the PMCM meeting was Bob Hatfield who spoke on Federal Reserve Bank Notes. These FRBN's were created due to the Federal Reserve System that was started then and had "National Currency" written on them (like National Bank Notes). It is an interesting series and Bob presented a good monograph on it.

I attended the Paper Money Show in St. Louis Nov. 9-11 and that show seems to be picking up steam. It has gotten better each year. They had a superb auction this year and a lot of very good notes were sold. I got some but lost out on some also to my friends that wanted them worse than I did I guess.

Bill Brandimore is the new EDITOR and Bob Hatfield is a new board member for 1991. Please write an article or two and submit to the new editor to help him get out a great "Rag Picker".

See you at the spring Show in Grand Rapids.

Regards,
Dr. Wallace Lee
President PMCM

MINUTES OF PMCM MEETING
NOVEMBER 24, 1990

- 1) Al Latson passed away - gave $50 for Memorial Heart Fund
- 2) Agreed to buy copy stand and let each member furnish their own camera.
- 3) Bob Hatfield - 3 proposals. All rejected due to setting precedent and cost will deplete treasury. Great idea but will have to wait awhile in leau of that we will give to libraries a copy of Rag Picker.
- 4) 10 people present.
- 5) PMCM will have a meeting at Chicago for ANA Show in 1991 and pay $25 for a patron (fee for support of the ANA program)
- 6) Bob Hatfield was the speaker and gave a talk on Federal Reserve Bank Notes.
